Wildomar has been my home since 1998. I've been married for thirteen years and my husband, son and I are active participants in our community and we attend Cornerstone Community Church.

I have contributed thousands of hours over seven years to bring parks back to our community, serving as past Chairwoman, current Vice-Chair and Secretary for the Wildomar Parks Formation Committee.

In my quest to promote Cityhood over the past five years, I have held positions as Treasurer, Fundraising Chairwoman and Secretary for the Wildomar Incorporation Now committee (WIN) with a goal of giving the community of Wildomar a chance to direct its future.

My long-established commitment to Wildomar has fostered my desire to volunteer for organizations such as the Wildomar Chamber of Commerce, Wildomar Cub Scouts, Emergency Services Committee, Wildomar Skaters, Wildomar MAC and Wildomar Community Council.

I look forward to this opportunity to represent the citizens of Wildomar as one of your first City Council members. I welcome the chance to speak with you and share my vision. With your vote, we can make the City of Wildomar become an even better place to live!
